Editor's Note

The staff of the 1972 Muhltohi has instituted a major change in the format of the yearbook. It reflects the drastic changes which are taking place in our educational system. Three divisions — Fall, Winter, and Spring — have been substituted for the five divisions of previous years. We feel that this format provides a natural background for our theme . . .

Fall

We passed through the first long week with spirits high — reviving old friendships, beginning new ones . . . hoping for easy schedules and the three o'clock bell on Friday afternoon . . . wishing the weather would turn cool . . . counting the days until Thanksgiving vacation. We came doubting that this year would be different. And yet it was. The cross country team won a division championship and went on to compete in the state finals. The Senior Class Play, "Kiss and Tell" was a laugh-filled success. The girls' hockey team won the title in their division.

Our new football coaching staff inspired our praise and built our hopes. Some new clubs were introduced, and academically there were new courses to supplement our already fine program of study.

Fall was a season of champions — in sports, in dramatics, in scholastics. Fall was a season of change — in football, in courses, in activities. Fall was a season to remember.

Administration

This year the administration at Muhlenberg took on a more difficult task than ever before. It was their responsibility to prepare for an entirely new educational system. With great determination they planned steadily for the reassignment of faculty and students to the new high school and the new middle school. The challenges of supervising the ordering of texts and materials was a difficult one, as were the necessary changes in curriculum. The addition of an Administrative Assistant in Charge of Curriculum made much of the work easier for everyone.

Administrative Staff

The Guidance Department plays a role vital to the success of the school's academic program. Devoted attention is given to college-bound students and to those seeking vocational employment. The counselors create an atmosphere in which a multitude of student problems can be solved.

For those with learning difficulties, a new program of Special

Education was also instituted.

Medical attention is given to students by the school doctor and nurse. First aid, eye and hearing tests, height and weight records, as well as physical examinations are among the many services they provide.

The secretarial staff takes care of vast quantities of paper work, attendance records, and financial matters. The cafeteria staff prepares our noon meal. Several other men and women provide us with transportation.

The custodial staff keeps the school clean and in good repair. Together they contribute much-needed assistance in keeping the school functioning smoothly.

English Department

English involves much more than traditional grammar and literature. It involves communication, the very essence of today's world. In an effort to heighten our abilities to communicate, a speech and drama course was added to the curriculum for the 1971-1972 term.

This year the English Department was also concerned with developing the new mini-courses to be initiated next year. Underclassmen were counseled and surveyed to determine the number who would elect each course in grammar, literature, writing, speaking, and drama. Our English Department faculty has made tremendous advances in its teaching system and deserves recognition for its attempts to bring people closer together through language.

The corrective-remedial reading program at Muhlenberg is a vital segment of the English Department. Its purpose is to teach study skills, vocabulary development, comprehension, and appreciation of literature and of reading.

Social Studies Department

Whether it be on the local, state, national, or international level, involvement is the key to our turbulent world. But we cannot begin to unlock the secrets to world peace until we understand ourselves and our society and how we relate. The Social Studies Department attempts to fulfill this obligation in addition to informing us on current events and providing us with the background which we need in order to search for solutions to today's pressing problems. They provide us with the knowledge and understanding which is essential to our survival in this time of constant conflict.

We can never hope to comprehend all the secrets of atoms, cells, and forces that this department has to offer. We can only hope that their efforts will provide us with a better understanding of the world around us, from the poison of a snake to the identification of an acid, to the principle of a pulley. We learn through them that science is no longer the pointless study of the cell or an abstract theory of energy, but an adventure into the very real relationship between ourselves and our environment.

Math Department

As we progress through the educational levels, we may begin to wonder what significance the infinite number of facts and figures will have in our lives beyond high school. Numbers, terms, theorems, and formulas form vague and confusing concepts as we try to untangle each new and challenging problem.

Our Mathematics Department attempts to fuse ancient principles with current situations to bring problem-solving back to reality. The most recent offshoot of this practical approach to mathematics is the Computer Math course, an indication of our technology-oriented society. Perhaps those strange mathematical symbols have a place in our world after all.

Music And Art Departments

We all possess talent in some area, and though it may never raise us to great heights of fame and fortune, we can learn to develop it for our personal pleasure. The Music and Art Departments attempt to bring forth this creativity and sensitivity so that we may learn to appreciate the beauty which surrounds us.

Europe — no more than a dream for most of us . . . and yet, maybe someday that dream will be realized. And so we prepare for that distant day through the study, sometimes exciting, always interesting, of the people, their culture, and their language. Many students may fulfill their dreams by visiting France as well as Spain, Germany, and Italy during Spring vacation.

In addition to the established courses in Spanish, German, and Latin, Muhlenberg now offers French as an elective. The Foreign Language Department develops communication to its highest degree by helping to bridge the gap between distinct cultures.

Football

Success in sports requires years of diligence, arduous practice, enthusiasm, and the desire to strive toward the goal of championship. Although the 1971 Muhls began that long journey upward with a largely inexperienced team, they soon earned valuable experience for themselves and a worthy reputation for Muhlenberg. Coach Dipipi, held in high esteem by the fans as well as the team, incited our boys to complete a respectable season.

Marching Unit

The members of Muhlenberg's marching band form the backbone of the Marching Unit. They provide the musical accompaniment for the majorettes and the color guard at football games and parades. The band and director deserve special recognition for their fine performances.

Color Guard

The Color Guard began the year with many changes. The new advisor expanded the unit by adding four rifles, six flags, and another captain. New equipment was purchased for part of the organization.

We spectators overlook the grueling hours of practice which these girls must suffer through, but we all appreciate their fine performances at football games both in pre-game shows and at half-time and in the many parades in which they participate.

Cheerleaders

A Muhlenberg cheerleader must perform a most difficult task, one which is neither glamorous nor well-rewarded. She is responsible for arousing school spirit in 1200 apathetic students, cheering for victory when she knows that none is in sight, evincing unwavering team loyalty and support when perhaps they have dwindled into nothingness. In addition to this high mental attitude the cheerleader must possess physical stamina and coordination in order to perfect the precision of this essential activity.

Homecoming Court

With the arrival of fall and the football season comes the traditional celebration of homecoming. Muhlenberg alumni return to enjoy the colorful parade, the burning of the "M" at the pep rally on the football field, the Student Council-sponsored dance, and, finally, the big game. But perhaps the most enjoyable activity of homecoming is the selection of the queen and her court. This year, beauty, wit, personality, and talent were considered when Denise Hasenauer was chosen to reign during Homecoming weekend.

Their excellent spirit and unbelievable drive set the pace for great things yet to come.

Winter

Fall finally passed, and winter settled in. We returned from a snowy Thanksgiving to find what the season had brought. Basketball and wrestling replaced football and cross country; the girls traded in their hockey sticks for basketballs; biting winds and bitter cold brought their share of colds and flu. And yet so many things never changed: waiting for three o'clock, counting the days until vacation, praying for a day off.

Christmas vacation was a welcome break, but it foreshadowed the calm before the storm. The coldness of the season was accompanied by the seriousness of education — homework, term papers, reports. Sports were a relief from all these pressures. The wrestling team and the girls' basketball team won championships in their divisions and the boys' basketball team provided many exciting games.

Dramatic presentations added to the winter schedule of entertainment. The Junior Class Play, "Bertha, the Beautiful Typewriter Girl" and the Faculty Play, "You Can't Take It With You" boasted of great success.

Winter was a season of hard work — in scholastics, in sports, in dramatics. Winter was a season of success — in sports, in dramatics, in activities. Winter was a season to remember.

As we trudged through those long days of knee-deep snow and homework up to our ears, it was nice to find a bit of relief.

Basketball

Determination and perseverance paid off for Muhlenberg's basketball teams this year. The varsity squad won a majority of their games and earned a great deal of experience. Next year should prove even more exciting, since four of the five top scorers will be returning.

Our junior varsity squad proved their basketball ability by claiming both the Western Division and County J.V. championships.

This Was The Year For . . . Winning

Girl's Basketball

Teamwork, long hours of practice, and many months of hard work finally paid off for our varsity players. The girls worked steadily through the season earning victory after victory. The team succeeded in winning the Division II championship along with the pride and support of the entire school. It was also to their honor that they were awarded the right to compete in the first girl's basketball playoffs ever held in this area.

Wrestling

Wrestling gained new significance this year. The team's success was seriously jeopardized by several off-the-mat injuries, but these young men went on to earn great recognition with an undefeated season and a tie for the Western Division championship.

This year's junior varsity team had a nearly perfect record of wins. They lost only one match in league competition.

Swimming

Muhlenberg's swimming team has completed its second year of steadily working and building for the future. Coach Gerald Snyder and his boys practice daily at the Jewish Community Center. Next year, however, the pool at the new school will provide the team with even more opportunity for improving their skills. We are all looking forward to the new school so we can take advantage of the swimming facilities.

Bowling

The predominately inexperienced bowling team improved their skills immensely despite the lack of school support. The bowlers did however manage to gain a second place in league competition. With all the hours of practice that these boys put in at the local bowling alley, they came very close to a title. Only a few pins kept them from that all-important win.

Junior Prom

The snowy hillsides of Heidelberg Country Club provided the backdrop for an evening filled with unforgettable memories. For some, floor-length gowns and tuxedos added to the unaccustomed formality of the Junior Prom. For others, they served to enhance the romantic overtones of the Fisher-Tillman Orchestra.

"Bertha, The Beautiful Typewriter Girl"

Junior Class Play

The junior class brought to Muhlenberg its second dramatic hit of the year. The old-time melodrama, with its moustache twirling villain, righteous and upstanding hero, and virtuous and beloved heroine, had the entire audience booing, cheering, and roaring with laughter.

Yearbook And Observer

The never-ending demand for words, pictures, copy, layouts in the rush to beat the deadline took something special from every one of us. That something will remain forever in the pages of this book, a fond memory of our days at Muhlenberg. Long after the bad times have been forgotten, our joys and victories will endure.

HI-Y CLUB

Learning About National And International Politics

Debating Team

This year's varsity and junior varsity debate teams contended for the championship of the Berks County Debating League. The varsity members were tied for the first place. Although seldom given much recognition for their talents and above-average ability in debate techniques, these students brought honor to Muhlenberg.

United Nations Club

The 1971-72 U.N. Club has been very active in several model U.N. conferences, both on a county and a national level. They also participated in a C.R.O.P. hunger march for the poor and collected over $1,000 for the U.N.I.C.E.F. with the aid of elementary school students.

Political Science Club

The Political Science Club was responsible for one of the best planned assemblies and seminar sessions that Muhlenberg had this year. The club worked very diligently at getting political office holders to come and talk to students on 'Youth in Government Day.'

Service Organizations

Service to the school and the students is provided not only by the faculty, administration and supportive staffs, but also by the students themselves. Many of these young people work diligently during their free time throughout the year to keep the school functioning smoothly.

The ever crowded halls, the constantly increasing demand for audio-visual equipment, and library materials, and our growing number of stage productions demands a large amount of time and effort from a great many students.

SCIENCE CLUB

Science Club

One of the most active organizations at Muhlenberg is the Science Club, the MSC. Students are given the opportunity to increase their knowledge of the scientific world through field trips to reptile houses, zoos, and caves. They also participate in basketball, bowling, and other leisure time recreation.

Future Teachers Of America

The members of the FTA are preparing to become the educators of tomorrow. They have developed a variety of activities to aid them toward this end, including a large-scale tutoring program. The students from the club utilize their free periods to help children from the elementary schools to improve their scholastic skills.

Drama Club

In answer to the great demand, a drama club was established this year at Muhlenberg. The instructor for the drama course became the advisor. The officers and club members were introduced to many theatre-oriented activities, including role-playing, improvisations, summerstock and community theatre. They also were given the opportunity to act in, and direct their own plays. Later in the year a competition for one act plays was attended.

Spring

Winter hung on, refusing to acknowledge the arrival of a new season. Spring vacation came just in time to rescue us from the drudgery, but our return plunged us once again into misery.

Soon, however, the signs of warmer weather began to appear. Our minds wandered from books and studying as we counted the days to the end which seemed so far away.

The Muhl Revue, Project Celebrate and award-winning sports events provided welcome relief during those last few weeks. But nothing can match the emotion that is felt when that final bell rings.

Spring was a season of victory — in sports, in entertainment, in scholastics. Spring was a season of finals — in courses, in sports, in activities. Spring was a season to remember.

Along with the traditional signs of spring — flowers, birds, budding trees — Muhlenberg's students acknowledge their own conventions. Warmer weather is on the way when these scenes become evident.

*When Muhlenberg Pitches,
It Might Just Be a "No-Hitter"*

Baseball

This year's baseball team used the talents of excellent batters, fielders, and pitchers to play to a winning season. Each member put out great effort in improving his own skills as well as cooperating with the rest of the team to fulfill his hopes for a victory. Two no-hit games in a row were something new for this team, but even these were only a part of the totally great season. The baseball team went into playoff games, winning first the Northern Division, then the League title.

Enough Runs and Enough Hits to Win the Title

*A Perfect Record,
They Won All Five
County-Wide Meets*

Track

There is only one word to describe the Muhlenberg track team — FANTASTIC! Their outstanding abilities, undying spirit, and determination to win has brought well-deserved praise to themselves and their school. The threatened records and the broken records, as well as competition in the State Meet were only a small part of one big exciting season.

*In Fact,
This Year
They Never Lost
. . . At All!*

Quiet Accuracy and Extreme Concentration

Golf

Golf is not considered one of the most exciting spectator sports by many people, and golfers seldom receive the same glory and praise as quarterbacks or centers. Nevertheless, this sport requires just as much skill, training and ambition as any other. Muhlenberg's team deserves recognition for the unending determination of its members.

A Sport of Skill and Agility

Tennis

A sport requiring intense concentration, lightening speed, and perfect coordination — this is tennis. Muhlenberg's players combined all these qualities with plenty of hard practice to compete favorably in their matches.

*Dancing, Singing or Telling Jokes,
This Evening Was Our Own Creation.*

Muhl Revue

The singers, dancers, and comedians of the 1972 Muhl Revue were a great success. The cast, consisting of students from every class, combined their talents and time to provide the audience with an enjoyable night of vaudeville.

Creating Some Fantastic Music . . .
"The Spoilers"

The Showband, "The Spoilers"

Instrumental Music Concert

Scores of talented musicians led by one fabulous director can only result in one outstanding band. Hank Hoffman and his groups have earned many awards and great recognition for themselves and our school.

Mixed Chorus

Muhlenberg students are provided with many opportunities for vocal expression. Mixed Chorus practiced many mornings with the new director, to develop diversified voices into a beautifully harmonious chorus. This group gave an impressive performance at the Spring Concert.

A Varied and Harmonious Spring Concert

Choral Groups Filled the School With Song

Muhlares, Muhlteers

Vocal talent led many students into the rigors and joys of Muhlenberg's choral groups. They endured hours of practice and rehearsal to bring us fine entertainment throughout the year in various programs such as the Christmas assembly and the Spring Concert.

Senior Prom

The formal dinner dance held at the Reading Motor Inn was at the same time joyful and sad. The prom marked the end of high school festivities for the seniors. The memory of that spring evening will linger in their minds for years to come.

An Evening Filled With Beautiful Memories

Visiting the Zoo and the Music Hall

Senior Class Trip

The senior class set a new precedent this year by visiting New York City on their class trip. A tour of the Bronx Zoo and the NBC Studios headed the agenda. This was followed by a series of entertainments at the Radio City Music Hall consisting of a current motion picture, the Rockettes, the Symphony Orchestra, and the Radio City Ballet Company.

Baccalaureate And Commencement

Twelve long years of studying, and worrying, and waiting had come to an end. Just these two June evenings and it would be all over. The seniors had a jumble of mixed emotions: glad that the hard work was past, saddened at leaving old friends behind, and deeply concerned at the prospect of an unknown future.

Awards

On these four pages are the results of years of diligence, hard work, and a desire to make the best of inborn qualities. These people used their intelligence, talent, and ambition to bring recognition to themselves and to Muhlenberg.
